

Name: _____

Date: _____

Number the events in the right order

Moses hears YHWH call to him from a bush that burned, but was not destroyed.

YHWH promises Moses that he will deliver the children of Israel from Egypt.

The people of Israel were forced to gather their own straw to make bricks with, making the work harder.

Moses throws his staff to the ground, and it becomes a serpent.. he then runs from it.

Pharaoh order's the male babies born to the children of Israel killed.

Moses asks permission from his father-in-law to go back to Egypt and see how his family is doing.